

Energy conservation awards presented

Electricity Minister K. Krishnankutty presenting the energy conservation awards to the winners in various categories at a function held in Thiruvananthapuram on Tuesday.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

Electricity Minister K. Krishnankutty has stressed the need to create better public awareness energy conservation and its financial benefits.

He was speaking after presenting the State energy conservation awards in various categories at a function held here on Tuesday.

Chairman and Managing Director, Kerala State Electricity Board, B. Ashok presided over the awards function. Chief Electrical Inspector V.C. Anilkumar, CEO, Anert, Naredranath Veluri, Energy Management Centre director R. Harikumar and General Manager, NTPC, Kayankulam S.K. Ram, were among those present. The award winners were selected from 78 entries received in eight different categories.

The award winners were selected from 78 entries received in eight different categories.

The total savings in electricity and oil by the applicants were estimated to be 621 MU (million units) and 45,345 toe (tonne of oil equivalent) defined as the amount of energy released by burning one tonne of crude oil.